Quilvest Private Equity wins the Gold Award 2012 – Best LP at the Private Equity Exchange

Quilvest Private Equity was honored to receive the Gold Award 2012 for “Best LP, Global Strategy with private equity allocation <$10 billion” at the Private Equity Exchange Award ceremony held in Paris on November 15th, 2012.

A jury board consisting of 80 renowned private equity industry professionals distinguished Quilvest Private Equity, following an initial shortlist of 12 prestigious nominees based on a quantitative and qualitative process and in collaboration with the editorial team of Leaders League.

The Private Equity Exchange & Awards is one of the largest Private Equity summits in Europe gathering over 1,200 delegates from across the globe.

Michel Abouchalache, CEO of the Quilvest Group, said: “This award is particularly meaningful as it recognizes our track record as well as the global view and disciplined approach we take to investing in private equity. Having recently expanded our international footprint with two new office openings, Quilvest intends to continue leveraging its unique global approach to the asset class.”
